

Two 400th Anniversary Celebrations!

The first 400th birthday celebration is The Woodenbridge Hotel in the Vale of Avoca in Wicklow. First licensed as a coaching inn on the old Dublin-Wexford highway in 1608, the Woodenbridge Hotel has spent the last 400 years quietly building on its initial success.

The hotel is planning a series of celebrations throughout this special year.

The second birthday celebration is Bushmills Irish whiskey. This birthday marks the 400th year anniversary of the original licence to distil, granted to the Bushmills area in 1608. In honour of this milestone, Bushmills have a special release whiskey, Bushmills 1608, combining some classic features of Bushmills.
