

Bray People

Wednesday, 9 April 2008

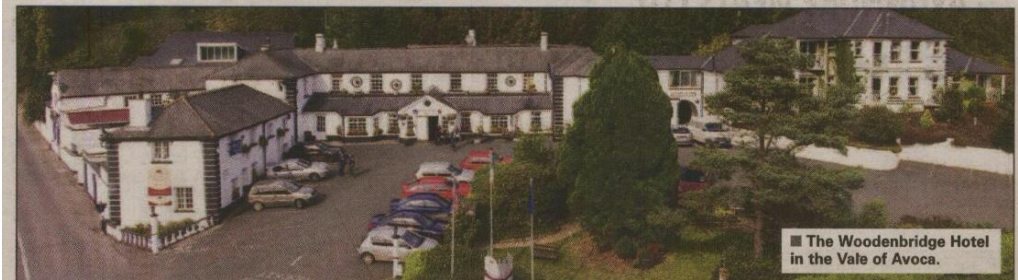

Page: 20

Circulation: 5 736

Area of Clip: 40727.00mm

Clip ID: 102415

Page 1 of 1

400 years of top class service

ANY business that maintains a bustling trade over four centuries must be doing something right and now that the Woodenbridge Hotel in the Vale of Avoca has reached its 400th anniversary customers are in for a special celebration.

This traditional and formidable venue has everything that true family-run business offers including that personal touch and attention to detail that is often lost when a business expands.

The Woodenbridge Hotel has kept its abundance of charm and its relaxed and welcoming atmosphere is as appealing today as ever before.

'We have expanded greatly in recent years with the addition of the Woodenbridge Lodge but we emphasise that the same attitude and approach to customer relations continue to feature. We want all our customers to remember their visit here whether it is for an informal Sunday lunch or a large elegant wedding,' explains General Manager Gerard O'Brien.

With a staff of fifty on hand there is no fear that any event booked for the Redmond Restaurant or the beautiful ballroom will receive anything less than excellent service.

The Woodenbridge Hotel is a clear front runner where wedding venues are concerned due to its great location, flexibility and personal touch.

With parties of up to 200 catered for clients can choose between an intimate and low key event or a traditional big day with all the trimmings.

Regardless of the size the bride and groom will have peace of mind knowing that they are the only wedding on the day and that they will have the full attention of the team at the Woodenbridge will be dedicated to making their reception a special one.

The ballroom is equally available for parties, anniversaries, launch events, christenings, communions and confirmations.

To coincide with the 400th anniversary of the hotel a range of delicious additional menus under the heading 'Four Centuries Of Food' will be introduced giving patrons the option of ordering from the regular bar menu or the menu which will feature traditional dishes from the past such as crubeens and Dublin coddle.

An extra special celebration weekend will take place on July 18 and 19 and details will follow.

The Woodenbridge Hotel is situated five miles from Arklow on the R747. For further information email info@woodenbridgehotel.com, telephone 0402 35146, see www.woodenbridgehotel.com or fax 0402 35573.

■ The Woodenbridge Hotel in days of yore.